New Hardy Lilies for Fall Planting

Lilium Centifolium

Centifolium. This variety is called a giant among lilies, with long, trumpet-shaped white flowers, streaked outside with brown and flushed inside with yellow at the base of the trumpet. July. Strong, flowering size bulbs, $1.00 each.

Cernuum. A rare and beautiful species from Korea resembling L. tenuifolium in habit and growth but with lilac-pink flowers of the "Turk's Cap" form, spotted with purple. A base-rooting variety that should be set only 4 inches deep. June. 50 cents each, $5.00 per doz.

Creelman Seedlings. Beautiful trumpet lilies grown from the seed of the famous George C. Creelman Hybrid. Vigorous stems with many gorgeous blooms coming in July. $1.00 each.

Crow's Hybrids. Outstanding creamy tones of coloring, some with greenish yellow throats and others clear yellow. Anthers vary from yellow to orange and dark brown. July-August. Strong, flowering size bulbs, $2.00 each.

Maxwill. A new hybrid between L. willmottiae and L. maximowczii. In color it resembles the former but has the stiff stem of the latter which marks it a greatly improved variety. July. Strong flowering size bulbs, $1.00 each.

This Fall we are adding some new and rare varieties of lilies that you need to give distinction to your garden. These bulbs we grew right here in the nursery and can guarantee every one to be a sound, healthy bulb. In another section of this folder you will find our usual offering of the older standard varieties.

Grace Marshall. A beautiful hybrid between L. wilmottiae and L. davuricum, sometimes growing to 5 feet in height. Color is described as between a grenadine red and scarlet somewhat spotted brown. It blooms in late June and early July. Strong flowering bulbs, $5.00 each.

Queen Charlotte. Similar to L. Maxwill but flowering a little later. Strong flowering bulbs, $3.00 each.

BACKHOUSE HYBRIDS. These resulted from crossing L. hansonii with L. martagon.

Brocade. A vigorous lily, reaching 6 feet in maturity. Exquisite orange-yellow flowers overlaid with rosy pink on the outside and with chocolate spots marking the inside. June. Strong flowering bulbs, $10.00 each.

Mrs. R. O. Backhouse. A tall and stately lily reaching 5 feet and bearing 15 to 30 flowers of an orange-yellow tone, lightly spotted with purple. June. Strong flowering bulbs, $10.00 each.

Sutton Court. A 6-foot lily with numerous star-shaped flowers, pinkish buff in color, covered with small dark spots. June. Strong flowering size bulbs, $10.00 each.

Get Full Bloom a Whole Year Sooner—

Save from 25 to 50 Per Cent — with Fall Planting

The plants listed in this folder are the very same ones we will be shipping next Spring (with the exception of the Peonies and Spring bulbs, which must be planted now). In your garden through the Fall and over the Winter they can be storing up energy, spreading out their roots, getting firmly established, ready to pay you extra dividends of bloom and fragrance as a result.

Summer and Fall are ideal for planting, too, because you can plan for your garden with it spread out before you in full growth. There's no question of "remembering" what you need—you can actually see the holes that need filling or the pictures that need completing.

FALL PRICES ARE LOWER

We offer many collections in the Fall at prices that can save many dollars in building or maintaining your garden. It is not simply that digging the plants is easier and better. Everything about Fall shipping saves us money.

The season is longer, we are not so rushed. It is actually easier to ship. Our stock is usually complete on all varieties. Frequently we have a surplus of some varieties that we offer at extra-special savings. (See the prices on our Peony Collections this year.)

We reflect all those savings in the prices in this list. And this year we believe prices are lower for our plants and bulbs than we will be able to make them for many years to come.

ALL PRICES ARE NET

Peonies, and all Collections must be shipped Express Collect. On all other plants or bulbs we will prepay postage or express, as you prefer, if 10 per cent is added to the price of the plants and bulbs in your order. Add 20 per cent for points west of the Mississippi. This covers both shipping cost and special packing. If no shipping method is specified, we will ship Express Collect.

Perennial beauty comes with Perennials

TWO REGAL PERENNIAL COLLECTIONS OF RARE VALUE

Fall is the ideal time to plant perennials. In late August or early September, the Spring-and-Summer-blooming plants are making root-growth for next year's flowering. These two selections are true "pictures," chosen for their range of color, height, and form. Bought singly, they would be fifty per cent more expensive. No substitutions, please, at these special prices.

REGAL PEONIES Ready to Grow and Bloom for You Next June

Somehow the idea has gained acceptance that Peonies require a lot of special care, a thought that always amazes us when we hear it. True, they don't like fresh manure around their roots, and they are particular about how deep you plant them, but beyond that their smash of bloom is ready for anyone willing to give them an ordinary Winter "blanket," and their fair share of fertilizer.

A lot of the trouble probably comes from the use of tiny divisions instead of full-grown plants (at least a year old), such as our Regal Peonies are. And, certainly, no other plant can give such masses of brilliant green and such smashes of whites, pinks, and reds to repay you for the comparatively little care they require. Full, yet simple, instructions accompany every shipment of Regal Peonies.

Oriental Poppies

The Oriental Poppies form a striking set of perennial plants. Their immense blooms and their striking colors make a wonderful display. The following varieties can be supplied in field-grown plants dormant in August and September. They require almost no care, are completely hardy, and usually "steal the show" for two weeks in June.

Thirty IRIS Selected for Your Garden

There are literally thousands of Iris varieties grown today. Many of them vary so slightly that none but the veriest professional can distinguish between them. We cannot grow them all, and we make no pretense of attempting to grow more than a truly representative list of types.

This is our selection of the best of each color pattern. Many of them may be purchased at a considerable saving in a collection.

REGAL IRIS Give You Color, Variety

There's a whole rainbow of color in the collections below. Just keep their feet dry (good drainage) and this selection of Iris and the more extensive list on the inside will assure you of just about any Spring color-scheme you wish. If you are an "Iris fan," you may want other combinations than these, which have been selected for their universal popularity and their harmonious blending of colors.

Connoisseur's Collection

We offer a collection of this type each year. It contains the best of the newer varieties.

For Your REGAL Garden

Add Regal Lupines and Regal Delphiniums to the Madonna Lily (Lilium Candidum)—there is a garden picture!

The Lilies contribute their white while Delphiniums add their giant spikes of mostly double flowers from the pink shades through to dark blue. And the Lupines bring their varied shades, even to yellows, bronzes, and the bicolors.

Three Peony Collections at about One-Half Price

Our Peonies were gorgeous this year, great smashing masses of colorful bloom that almost made one's eyes ache with their brilliance in the full sun. We took orders for hundreds of plants during the blooming season.

These collections have been Fall "favorites" for many years (by name). Each year we bring them up to date, discarding and adding a few varieties where the change will increase their value. (See Peony list for descriptions.)

OUR GREATEST FAVORITES—LILIES

There is something about the whole Lily family, with its vivid colorings and its creamy whites, that no other group of flowers can quite equal. They look well in occasional masses, or as part of garden groups with other plants that best show them off.

Our Lily bulbs are grown to bloom strongly and profusely. They may be planted in the Spring, of course, but for bloom next year they should be planted this Fall. Planted together as a collection, or separated by varieties, they make a handsome garden picture.
